ACADEMY

4th November 2020

I know it may seem depressing...

Lockdown part 2 is not welcomed, especially from those of us within the beauty industry. I do not know how you personally spent lockdown the first-time round, but I want to assure you that it will all be ok in the end! We had hundreds of students' train with us during lockdown the first time and they were busier than ever when they were allowed to reopen.

My personal view is that if you focus on the things you can change during lockdown, all is not lost. Hopefully, we will be out of lockdown at the beginning of December and business will no doubt be booming in our industry.

EVO ACADEMY will once again be running massive sales to support our students who are hit the hardest during this lockdown. You will be coming out of lockdown with new treatments under your belt will bring the clients running to your door!

We are also going to be working hard on releasing new courses for you all to learn and enjoy. If you have any requests, please let us know.

Also, to raise spirits, we are going to be doing our top fan competition again to give you all a chance to win a free course. Make sure you are following our Facebook page to keep in the loop about this. www.facebook.com/evoacademyuk

Please let us know if there is anything we can do or add to our service to help you out during this difficult time.

Keep checking our website for new course releases, resources, and our latest news.
